Omnia '55

Omnibus Omnia--"To become all things to all men for the sake of Christ" is our belief and challenge as students of Parkersburg Catholic High School. To us, it is a challenge that must be faced. Through the guidance of the Faculty and by our determination and earnest endeavor we have prepared ourselves to accept this reality.

To reach our goal we have thought vitally, reflected carefully and chosen wisely the ideals and principles which form the core of our Catholic way of life. Lifelong practice of these fundamental truths will gain for us the reward promised to the faithful servant: "Come ye blessed of my Father. Enter ye into the joy of the Lord."

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
PARKERSBURG CATHOLIC
HIGH SCHOOL
Parkersburg,
West Virginia

Dedication

We, the first Senior Class of Parkersburg Catholic High School, dedicate these treasured thoughts and memories to our eminent Archbishop-Bishop John J. Swint and Bishop Thomas J. McDonnell, who realized together with our beloved pastor, the Very Reverend John B. O'Reilly, our parents and benefactors, the necessity of a Catholic High School in this city. They were assisted by the Sisters of the Congregation of the Poor Child Jesus who form the faculty of our school.

We wish to express our thanks more profoundly for these words only half reveal the gratitude in our hearts. This Yearbook is a reflection of our future and what we shall give you in exchange for your love. Not only do we thank you for this modern and well equipped building but primarily for the means with which we formulated our ideals and instilled into our immortal souls just principles that time cannot efface.

Then

Parkersburg Catholic High School now graduates its first Senior Class of '55. As St. Francis Xavier Grade School, the doors were opened to the children of the city in September, 1923, and the classes were staffed by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

And

Now...

These good Sisters remained for one year pending the preparation of St. Raphael's Convent for the Sisters of the Poor Child Jesus to whom His Excellency Archbishop-Bishop John J. Swint had entrusted the schools of the city.

Father McBride had purchased a residence on Juliana St. which was converted temporarily into an attractive school. This building was maintained for twenty-five years as St. Francis Xavier Junior High School.

In 1949, the Very Reverend John B. O'Reilly undertook the arduous task and colossal debt involved in the construction of the fine modern building which we know today and have enjoyed for the past four years as students of Parkersburg Catholic High School.

School Hymn

OUR PATRON
ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

We greet thee, Francis Xavier
Loyola's greatest son,
Thy daring soul's seraphic love
Unnumbered souls have won,
We greet thee, great Apostle,
Whose heart was all afire,
To do for Christ, to die for Christ
And Christ alone desire,
We greet thee, Francis Xavier
Our Lady's royal knight
Thy faith, thy love and chastity
Rare jewels in her sight.

Lead on to battle, Xavier,
That souls to Christ we save
Unfurl Christ's royal banner,
In glory shall it wave,
Lead on against the evil,
'Gainst Satan full arrayed,
Thy comrades march beside thee
Undaunted, unafraid,
We'll follow thee and conquer,
All dangers will we face,
St. Francis Xavier, lead us on,
Dear Christ, give us Thy grace.

MOTHER CLARE FEY, loving guide, great teacher, and courageous Foundress of the Sisters of the Poor Child Jesus whose daughters have taught us from the days of our childhood and on up through our youthful days. Her words: "Let us love the children because Jesus loves them and let us love Jesus in every child" find their counterpart in our teachers and do justice to the true Mother.

She has watched over the Sisters since 1924 when St. Francis Xavier School first came under the care of her Congregation. No doubt she rejoiced at the dedication of the new school. It is presumably through her intercession we have obtained many favors.

It is with deep gratitude and love that we salute this Venerable Mother, whose pioneer daughters came to our shores. In her name and in their turn they have guided us, her American children.

As the first graduating class of Parkersburg Catholic High we are proud and humble to bear the name: "Marian Year Class." May our love and service offered through her to God be ever inspired by our devotion to Mary, Mother of a Divine Son.

Our religious activities have entered prominently into our life and we have felt privileged to have participated in them. Some of these activities are summarized in the pictures presented in this section. There have been ways in which we have endeavored to show Our Lady that we wished to be especially dedicated to her Cause in the salvation of souls. A number of students were privileged to take part in the C.S.M.C. Marian Convention at Notre Dame University in August, 1954.

On her great day, the feast of the Immaculate Conception, we received our blessed class rings at the altar rail in St. Francis Xavier's Church, from the hands and with the congratulations of our pastor, Father John B. O'Reilly.

May the thoughts which filled our hearts at that moment remain forever with us.

Rosary

On October 10, 1954, the living Rosary was formed by the girls of St. Francis Xavier's Grade School.

Rally

Senior boys of P.C.H.S. led by Mike Griffin carrying the school banner march in honor of Mary.

Our senior boys march proudly forward displaying their love for Mary.

Cornelia Bird, senior student, prays in honor of Mary, Queen of the May.

OUR QUEEN

Since the formation of our school it has been a tradition in P.C.H.S. to elect a "queen" to crown the Virgin Mary's statue in the annual May Procession.

During the past four years the honor has been bestowed upon Cornelia Bird, Rosemary Yencha, Patricia Bell and Rose Ann Ellem respectively.

The May Queen marches proudly down the aisle towards Our Lady's Altar.

PRAY

Senior Class attends School Mass.

Hearing Mass DAILY Can Help YOU

- to avoid temptation and sin,
- to find peace amid the trials of life,
- to grow in the love of God,
- to thank God for all His blessings,
- to obtain protection against all dangers,
- to gain the favors of which you stand in need,
- to shorten the Purgatory of your dear departed ones,

- Archbishop Cushing

THE MASS

Sonny and Jerry pray fervently during Mass.

Rosemary, Shirley, and Pat make a visit before the Crib.

The Seniors keep the age-old tradition of lighting the Advent Wreath.

Senior Patricia Nelson receives Confirmation from the hands of Bishop McDonnell.

During the past four years you have made honest efforts to further the words of Saint Paul, "To become all things to all men for the sake of Christ." What has this striving meant to you and how will it be exemplified in the years to come? In school you have been deeply and firmly grounded in your Faith and have been taught all things in the light of Christian ideals. Now it is your turn to carry your treasure forth into the world, to be torch bearers in the army of Christ. You must know that it is your privilege to carry the light, to be imbued with apostolic zeal so that you may influence everyone you meet.

This you will do foremost in setting a living example by conscientiously observing all the Commandments. Thus you show that a true Christian can meet any situation in life, and solve everyday problems in a righteous way.

Underclassmen

The path which Underclassmen must follow through high school is that of a long hill winding ever upward. These future Seniors complete the picture of high school life and support the framework of school activity.

At the bottom of our hill, we stand before the first curve---THE FRESHMAN CLASS, who have proven to be a stimulus rather than a discouragement to fellow students. The next curve we encounter on the way to the top is THE SOPHOMORE CLASS. The optimistic approach with which they encounter and accomplish a job leaves a smile on everyone's face and a warmth of pride in each one's heart. Nearer the top of the hill stands the last curve of our climb---THE JUNIOR CLASS. In name only are these Juniors Underclassmen. Their flashes of light are felt throughout the entire student body. Defeat is a word unknown to them.

When these Underclassmen reach the top they will glance back at the path paved behind them and realize that it was over only too quickly. In every sorrow there is some joy. Their joy is found overcoming the strenuous path which now lies behind them. The self satisfaction they feel in having met their first goal urges them onward ready to meet other goals which lie before them.

Yes, Underclassmen, look ahead. You are the promise of a bright future. You are the leaders of tomorrow.

Academic...

God created the individual and endowed him with educational powers with which to perfect himself. Education not only serves to make an illiterate literate but also to perfect every phase of his life---intellectual, social, moral and physical. P. C. H. S. also includes in its curriculum the teachings of Christ so that its students may know the best that has been said and taught in the world. With an eye to the future our beloved teachers have striven not only to acquaint us with the Arts and Sciences but help us develop specific skills in these fields. The wise man will tell you that the individual can only fully realize the enormity and importance of his education and training after he stands on the threshold of achievement.

We, the First Graduates, with God on our side and determination in our hearts, shall be in our own personal ways the leaders of tomorrow.

Student Council

Purposes of the Student Council of Parkersburg Catholic High School:

1. The development of the power of self government in each student by teaching him the responsibilities and duties he has to lawful authority, his fellow students, the Church and State.
2. Chief duty is to set before the students the ideals of good Christian citizenship and not only in words but chiefly in deeds.

Objectives

1. To develop good citizenship, high ideals and Christian virtues among the students.
2. To help promote all worthy scholastic, religious, and social activities of the school.

English

Sister Mary Henrica points out the importance of research work in English assignments to Seniors Larry Witt, Pat McGuirk, Shirley Harless and Helen Jane Griffin.

History

Juniors Doris Smith, Gail Huddleston, Jim McNamara and Jack Barrett discuss American History with Sister Augusta Maria.

Language

Sister Mary Alfreda and her French Class review the essentials of French grammar. Sister is also a master of five languages.

Art

Sister Frances Teresa points out important art techniques to Freshmen Richard Bird, John Parker and Yvonne Lamb.

Cafeteria

After a hard morning's work students gather eagerly for lunch.

Students busily prepare for their afternoon classes.

Sister Frances Teresa instructs Freshmen from the known to the unknown. Completion of these problems are both a challenge and a satisfaction.

Math

Senior Jim McCarthy, Paul Myers, Haynes Huddleston and Sonny Peterman involved in the intricacies of Solid Geometry with Sister Mary Innocentia.

High student interest is shown in the lab as these students, under the supervision of Sister Clara Devota, perform a biological experiment.

Science

Sister Anna Veronica instructs Seniors Rosemary Yencha, Kenneth Peterman and Juniors Art Huston and Jim Tucker in a Physics experiment.

Commercial

Future business men and women type with rhythm under the direction of Sister Mary Innocentia.

Sister Mary Innocentia dictates a test to her shorthand students.

Study

Mr. Michael Nedeff supervises study hall for hard working Underclassmen.

Sister Clara Devota demonstrates to her Home Nursing Class how to administer first aid to student patient Cornelia Bird.

Between classes students relax in the quiet atmosphere of the well stocked library.

Time Out!!

After classes students group together in the lounge to converse on the day's happenings.

Activities

"A little to the right, got it." This is the reply of Don Markey as he catches glimpses of our activities with his camera. In his collection of snapshots pictured on the following pages you will see how the students of P. C. H. S. spend their leisure hours.

Plays, Clubs, Omnibus Omnia, Crusader, the Drama Festival and other constructive projects provide the needed entertainment and relaxation as well as student co-operation and harmony.

Long hours and hard work go into the making of successful projects. But as we look back the work was really a pleasure and the long hours were not very long after all.

Catholic Book Week

During the olden days when P. C. H. S. was known as St. Francis Xavier a National Book Week was held. This special week was observed by our students in order to further good literature in the community and combat the now radical trends of writing. The students of P. C. H. did their part in the crusade by organizing this display in the Union Trust Building where it would attract the attention of all.

During the Education Week program Freshmen and Sophomore students exhibit grace and beauty in the "Rose Dance."

Social

In the preceding pages we have shown our students with their heads to the grindstone--Bob's worried about the next Physics test, Carol's writing an English composition and Father Werner is introducing another Encyclical. These are all typical scenes in our busy little beehive. In our curriculum is included the all important social events that keep our busy little bees from becoming bored and dull. An intermixing of social functions in our school keeps our students alert, helps them develop good personality traits, and gives them a sense of light heartedness with which to tackle the many obstacles of life and gives its students a cheerful outlook on life.

The Pilgrim Prom

Senior Rosemary Yenchu turns in time to get her picture taken but her dancing partner must be under the spell of her or the music. Probably the music!

Jerry Fochler with his date Carolyn Barnes are quite happy while Marsha Solomon and Bob Fochler seem to be in ecstasy.

Seniors Rose Ann Ellem, Rosemary Yencha, Pat Bell and Cornelia Bird gather at Kresges to look over lessons and eat a hurried breakfast after school Mass.

This is a typical scene found in many of our students' homes. They know the value and necessity of clean, wholesome recreation.

Sports

Good sports build better bodies. Good sportsmanship builds better men. P. C. H. S. realizes the importance of physical education for it offers students competition, teamwork, enthusiasm and initiative.

Under the careful guidance of Coach Michael Nedeff our Crusaders have been taught that in any athletic contest, winning is important but more important is learning to show good sportsmanship.

P. C. H. S. shall not only turn out champions in their chosen sport but also champions in life--champions who shall carry their sportsmanship and fair play with them forever.

Crusaders Topple Coolville, 67-51

The Parkersburg Crusaders returned to the victory trail here tonight with a hard fought 67-51 victory over the Carthage-Troy Trojans of Coolville. The win was the Crusaders sixth in 16 outings.

Big Bob Pilcher once again was the scoring star for the Crusaders with 23 points on nine fielders and five fouls. Mike Nedeff and Bob Ayersman followed close behind Pilcher in the point, producing with 15 and 13 markers each.

Coolville, showing surprising strength after Friday's loss to the Little Reds, broke fast and stayed on top during most of the first period. At the one quarter mark the Trojans held a 19-8 lead.

But in the second period the Crusaders edged into a lead they never relinquished with 19 point assault and 37-28 bulge at halftime. Pilcher and Nedeff led the attack that gave Parkersburg the win.

The third period was slow in comparison to the first two as Coolville cut the leads 11-10 to cut the gap to 47-39. But the Crusaders turned loose a 19-point assault in the final eight minutes and won going away.

Ray Impney and Charlie Taylor led the Trojan attack with 11 points each, while Kenny Cowdery had 10.

Tuesday night the Parkersburg Catholic quintet will play host to Harrisville at the Juliana St. gym. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Crusaders Cop 74-63 Win Over St. Patrick

Little Jimmy McCarthy and lanky Bob Pilcher combined to toss in 50 points yesterday afternoon as the Parkersburg Catholic Crusaders posted their fifth victory of the season, a 74-63 verdict over the Irish of West-

ton St. Patrick

McCarthy, who stands a diminutive 5'9", netted eight field goals and 11 fouls for 27 points to lead the Crusader attack. Pilcher chipped in with eight field goals and seven fouls for 23 markers. Rapidly improving Mike Nedeff also swished 15

However, the game's laurels went to Jim Williams of the Irish who netted seven goals and 14 charity tosses for 18 points. Williams was the only St. Patrick player who scored with any consistency.

Pilcher hit on a jumping one-hand shot in the first minute to give Parkersburg Catholic a lead they never relinquished. The Crusaders built up a safe lead and then withstood a determined St. Patrick rally to cop a 21-20 bulge at the one-quarter post.

In the second eight minutes of action McCarthy "got hot" and the Crusader quintet increased their lead to 47-36 with a 26 points explosion.

However, the Crusaders suddenly cooled off in the third period meshing only eight counters as the Irish cut the margin to 55-49 thanks to the outstanding floor play to Williams.

Parkersburg Catholic recovered in the final stanza to score 18 points and run out the string with a 74-63 verdict.

The Crusaders will return to action Tuesday night when they play a return engagement with Marietta St. Marys on the Irish home floor.
